Health and Wellness Trainings

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How are the courses in the Options in Learning Guide delivered?

Courses can be delivered in a variety of ways.

- Classroom-based courses are generally held at the work site for a group (approximately 20–30) of employees.¹ Magellan’s training network allows us to locate a local trainer to facilitate the course in person. This format is typically best when the course topic could be emotionally stressful, or a lot of interaction is required, such as Navigating Downsizing and Job Loss or Team Building.
- Webinars are presented in real-time via the Internet for the content and via telephone² for the audio. Mobile access is also available using the Adobe Connect mobile app.³ Participants may log in to the webinar individually or as a group in a conference or meeting room.¹ Participants interact with each other and the presenter via poll questions and the “chat” feature. Speakers with over 30 participants may choose the listen-only mode and conduct all participant communication through the chat. Webinar meeting rooms can accommodate up to 100 attendees.^{4,5}

1. In-person trainings or gathering as a group may not be an option related to COVID-19. If in-person training is not an option, you may request a virtual training.
2. Audio is also available via computer. However, the trainer does not have control over technical issues related to audio via computer, because of the diversity in the technology used by participants (ex. age of the computer, broadband). International attendees will have the option to listen to audio via their computer speakers.
3. The Adobe Connect application can be downloaded from Apple iTunes, Android Market or Blackberry App World.
4. If you would like to use your company’s webinar platform, please discuss this request with your account representative. Magellan trainers are not responsible for moderating webinars outside of Magellan’s Adobe Connect platform. For that reason, if you use your company’s platform, you will need to provide technical support for the trainer.
5. If you anticipate more than 100 participants, please notify your account representative to discuss options.

2. How soon in advance should I request a course?

Classroom-based: At a minimum, a notice of 30 business days is required to ensure we locate a trainer with experience in your course topic. Six to eight weeks is needed to create a classroom-based course that is customized to your company. Consult with your account representative if customization is needed as additional fees may apply.

Please note—larger scale requests, such as more than one training requested on the same day, may require additional lead time.

Webinars: Due to their popularity, a minimum of 30 business days’ notice is also required for requesting webinars. Six to eight weeks is needed to create a webinar that is customized to your company. Consult with your account representative if customization is needed as additional fees may apply.

3. How do I decide which course to select and in what manner it should be delivered?

In addition to calling your account representative at Magellan for a consultation*, asking yourself the questions below can also help you to decide.

- What's going on in the workplace that led me to inquire about a Magellan course? (i.e.: a new product line, organizational change, employee stress)
- What do I want employees to gain from this course? (i.e.: strategies to balance work and personal life, strategies to cope with stress)
- What areas are the majority of employees talking about? (i.e.: financial strain, communication concerns)
- Do I want employees from multiple sites to participate at the same time?
- What learning format works best with our employees? (i.e.: classroom based, webinar)

Magellan develops training content to be easily adaptable to a variety of environments. When requesting a training, providing as much detail as possible will help the trainer tailor the subject matter content to fit the audience.*

4. Once I've selected a course, how do I request it?

You can request a course by calling either your company's EAP 800 number or your account representative. Be prepared to provide information such as the course you have selected; whether you would like the presentation via webinar or in person; anticipated number and position of employees participating (leader/non-leader/mixed); any relevant information/events precipitating the request and what day and time you would like the course held.

5. What if I don't see a course in the Options in Learning Guide that meets my needs?

Most of Magellan's standard trainings can be adapted to a variety of situations and audiences without additional fees. However, if you need an entirely new course, please consult with your account representative for customization fee details. Please keep in mind additional lead-time is needed for customization. Please note—Magellan does not create trainings in compliance with any state regulations and/or requirements.

Magellan maintains copyrights on all Magellan developed materials.

6. What if I schedule a course and then have to cancel it?

Please notify your account representative as soon as you know the course will need to be canceled. Please respect the trainer's schedule and provide at least one week notice. Consult with your account representative regarding cancellation fees if a training needs to be canceled with less than one week notice.

7. How long are the courses?

- Classroom-based: Classroom-based courses vary in length depending on topic, but most are between 60 and 90 minutes.
- Webinars: Webinars also vary in length, but are generally 60 minutes.

8. What if I want to change the content or length of a training?

Please contact your account representative to discuss this variation. Please note—customization of materials may change the course objectives. Also, all customizations require additional lead-time. Please consult with your account representative for customization fee details.

Magellan maintains copyrights on all Magellan developed materials.

9. Whom do I contact if I want to have Magellan at a health fair?

You can request Magellan attend a health fair by calling either your company's EAP toll-free number or your account representative. Let us know the location (in person or virtual) of the health fair, how many employees will be participating and what day and time you would like the health fair to be held. At a minimum, a notice of 15-business days is optimal to ensure we locate a provider in your area.

10. Can a Magellan training session be recorded by the customer?

Magellan's trainings are copyrighted and can only be recorded by customers when special arrangements have been made in advance of the scheduled training. Please reach out to your account representative regarding obtaining a license agreement if you would like to record a session.

Navigating Uncertain Times

Trainings for employees and leaders

Navigating Uncertain Times

Selections geared towards supporting employee and leader participants while building coping skills and resiliency through these ever-changing and uncertain times. Through advance consultation, trainers will adapt presentations to address unique participant circumstances, such as fears and anxiety about the future, sudden changes in routine, returning to work, grief from community violence/civil unrest, etc.

Some trainings located in this section may also be found in other sections of this guide.*

All Employee Trainings

Coping and Supporting Others Through Grief

The loss of a loved one, job, relationship or 'the way things used to be' may lead to many challenging and conflicting emotions. While there is no right or wrong way to grieve, there are healthy ways to cope with the pain. In this seminar, you will learn the impact of loss and grief, what happens when we grieve, how to cope and help others overcome grief and when to seek help.

Conquering Workplace Stress

Stress is inevitable, but not all stress is bad; when well-managed, it can help us grow and become resilient. In fact, when job pressures match our abilities and resources, stress helps to motivate us to achieve our goals. However, when we have difficulty managing our stressors it affects our ability to be productive and may start to impact our emotional health, relationships, and home life. In this training, participants will learn the common causes of workplace stress and techniques to manage these stressors.
